

Consumers Turn to Contactless Payments for Everyday Purchases

35%

of respondents in Latin America and the Caribbean say they have increased their usage of contactless payments since the pandemic started¹

Worldwide, contactless transactions grew 2X as fast as non-contactless transactions in the grocery and drug store categories between February and March 2020²

Contactless Payment Cements Positive Perceptions Versus Cash in Latin America & the Caribbean

84%

Believe contactless is a cleaner way to pay¹

81%

Feel contactless is more convenient than cash¹

78%

State they will continue to use contactless payment post-pandemic¹

¹ Source: Consumer Polling Data; online interviews of 17,000 consumers in 19 countries worldwide conducted April 10-12, 2020

² Source: Mastercard Data Warehouse. Growth calculated as the percentage increase in contactless transactions compared to the percentage increase in non-contactless transactions, comparing March 2020 to February 2020, at grocery and pharmacy categories.